

HOSTA

	Miniature Leaves < 6 inches square (AHS Section V)	Small Leaves 6 to <30 inches sq. (AHS Section IV)	Medium Leaves 30 to <64 inches sq. (AHS Section III)	Large Leaves 64 to <120 inches sq. (AHS Section II)	Giant Leaves 120 inches sq. or + (AHS Section I)
Green			plantaginea	Aphrodite	Empress Wu Komodo Dragon
Blue	Blue Mouse Ears Church Mouse	Blue Wedgwood Fragrant Blue Halcyon Love Pat	Abiqua Drink. Gourd Blueberry Muffin	Big Daddy Neptune	Blue Angel Blue Umbrellas Humpback Whale Krossa Regal sieboldiana Elegans
Yellow	Appletini Curly Fries Munchkin Fire Sun Mouse	Fire Island Maui Buttercups	August Moon Fried Bananas Designer Genes	City Lights Dancing Queen Sun Power	Coast to Coast Sum and Substance
White Margin	Cameo Little Devil	Blue Ivory Ginko Craig Queen Josephine Praying Hands	Barbara Ann Brim Cup First Frost Francee Minuteman Patriot	Christmas Tree Earth Angel Fragrant Bouquet Regal Splendor
Yellow Margin	Hush Puppie School Mouse	Autumn Frost Golden Tiara Grand Tiara Hans Mighty Mouse	for. Aureomarginata Independence Wheee! Wide Brim	mon. Aureomarginata Sagae Seducer	Frances Williams
Green or Blue Margin (light center)	Pandora's Box Pure Heart	Fire and Ice Great Expectations Island Breeze June Loyalist Night Before Christmas Paul's Glory Pocketful of Sunshine Rainbow's End Striptease Touch of Class Whirlwind	Dream Queen Gold Standard Guacamole Hudson Bay Orange Marmalade Revolution Vulcan	Brother Stefan Cool as a Cucumber Paradigm Stained Glass
Green or Blue Margin (green to blue center)					Guardian Angel

Hosta prefer partial to full shade. Here in Zone 7, even those that can "take some sun" will only take some morning sun; mid-day and afternoon sun is just too hot for them and their leaf edges will burn. Those getting some sun will need more moisture. Regardless of placement, all hosta appreciate consistent moisture for best appearance.